

Established in 1883 as a family-owned company and since 2010 part of the listed company Amsterdam Commodities N.V., Red River – Van Eck B.V. has a long standing solid reputation which serves as the basis for its business activities. The company specializes in trading within a select group of products (mainly edible seeds) to the confection, spice and bakery industry. Our leading position in the industry has been realized through entrepreneurship, reliability, passion for our products and commitment to our customers. Our central office is located in the Dutch town of Zevenbergen (Municipality Moerdijk), conveniently located between the major international ports of Rotterdam and Antwerp. Working closely together with our daughter company in Bulgaria, we act on a truly global basis.

To strengthen and expand our internationally operating commercial team, we are currently looking for a
